

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE ADVOCATE TRAINING

PRESENTED BY

HIGH DESERT DOMESTIC VIOLENCE PROGRAM

Do you have a passion to help others? Do you want to become a Domestic Violence Advocate? Here's the training to become a Certified Domestic Violence Advocate

Some of the topics this training will include are: Legal Services, Restraining Orders, STDs Intervention Program, Financial Resources, Domestic Violence Impact on Children, Substance Abuse and more

PRESENTERS WILL INCLUDE

Deborah Sutton, Court appointed Special Advocates, Riverside County

Debbie Simon & Gabriella Reyes, Superior Court of Calif., San Bernardino County

Caryn McMillan, Health Education Specialist

Edward Hernandez, Inland County Legal Services

Class Schedule

Tuesday, March 1st from 8:00am to 5:00pm

Thursday, March 3rd from 9:00am to 5:00pm

Monday, March 7th from 9:00am to 5:00pm

Thursday, March 10th, from 9:00am to 5:00pm

Saturday, March 12th, from 10:00am to 5:00pm

LOCATION

High Desert Domestic Violence Program

15075 Seventh Street

Victorville, CA 92395

Class is limited to 20 participants.

To reserve a space, please contact

Carolyn Solle (760)843-0701

carolyn@hddvp.org